INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — A second autopsy on the body of a 10-year-old Indianapolis newspaper carrier who was slain and dumped from a car near Knightstown last Saturday was performed early today.

Investigators asked and received family permission for the new autopsy just as the body of Jerry Bayles was ready to be lowered into its grave in Summit Lawn Cemetery at Westfield.