Test Backs Up Witness

★ Concluded From Page 1

cured by hiding and living in fear."

HE SUGGESTED anyone involved in the slaying consult a clergyman before coming to police or telephoning 633-4964, a special line kept open for information on the case.

Police want the public not only to be watchful for any car matching the description of the car given by the witness, but also to be alert for the boy's missing clothing—black jeans, a pink-striped yellow shirt, blue windbreaker and black tennis shoes.

Jerry, 3025 West Jackson Street, had been stabbed eight times and his body was dumped along a Henry County road.

TWO CONTRIBUTIONS yesterday increased to $5,304.32 the amount of money offered as rewards.

This includes $5,000 posted by Eugene C. Pulliam, publisher of The Star and The Indianapolis News, for information leading to an arest and conviction.

The contributions yesterday were $10 from Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Armstrong of Cannelburg and $5 from James Marsh of R.R. 1, New Palestine.