tems.

Autopsy

Continued From Page One.

ducted from Inianapolis' west side while he was working as a substitute for his brother on a paper route. His bike and the papers were found in the area.

A witness told police he saw a boy about 6 a.m. Saturday struggling with a man, but the man told the unidentified witness the boy was his son and was trying to run away from home.