Boy Scout master charged with molesting boys: A scoutmaster from Burbank, Ill., was charged with five counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse on grounds of allegedly molesting three boys from his troop, authorities said. The charges were filed Wednesday against Thomas Hacker, 51, said Lisa Howard, a spokeswoman for the Cook County state's attorney's office. Howard said authorities were also investigating reports about Hacker in Michigan, Indiana and Wisconsin, and other counties of Illinois.