Find Youth, 15, In Buck Creek At Cumberland

CUMBERLAND, Ind. (AP) — The body of Robert Jackson Jr., 15, an Indianapolis Marshall High School pupil, was found Monday in Buck Creek in a desolate area about a half mile south of Cumberland in western Hancock County.

State police said the boy's head was in the creek, with his long blond hair streaming in the water, and the feet were on the bank. The cause of death was not determined immediately.
