Someday Cuba will get Guantanamo

Youth's Body

★ Concluded From Page 1

on the bank, authorities added.

State Police were aided in the search to identify the youth by Sgt. John W. Jones of the Indianapolis Police Department Juvenile Branch.

After receiving a call from state police about 11 p.m. Jones combed missing persons reports and found one which matched the description of the dead youth.

The body was found by a woman whose name was not available from police last night.