Suspect held for slaying

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — State Police Sgt. John Petty says a suspect in the slaying of Robert Jackson Jr., 15, an Indianapolis high school freshman, will be charged with murder this week.

Sgt. Petty said murder charges will be filed in Greenfield against Jeff Bailey, 19, Indianapolis, in connection with the death of Jackson, whose body was found in Buck Creek near Cumberland Nov. 22.

Bailey was arrested on an auto theft charge Dec. 22 near Bakersfield, Calif., and returned here Friday night after he waived extradition proceedings.
