Youth Indicted

GREENFIELD (AP) — A 19-year-old Indianapolis youth has been indicted for first-degree murder and sodomy by the Hancock Grand Jury in the death of an Indianapolis high school freshman.

Jeff A. Bailey has been confined in the Hancock County Jail. The indictment alleges Bailey choked an drowned Robert Jackson Jr., 15, Nov. 20 in Buck Creek south of Cumberland in Hancock County, Peter Shumaker, county prosecutor, said.