

City Youth Gets 15 To 25 Years In Boy's Death

GREENFIELD, Ind. (UPI)
—Jeff A. Bailey, 20, Indianapolis, has been sentenced to 15 to 25 years imprisonment by Hancock Superior Court Judge Richard T. Payne on a second-degree murder charge in the death of Robert Jackson Jr., 15, Indianapolis.

Jackson's body was found last Nov. 22 in Buck Creek south of Cumberland.

Bailey was arrested a month later on a traffic charge in California and was then identified as the suspect wanted for questioning in the youth's death.

Bailey was indicted on a first-degree murder charge and accused of a sex crime. He pleaded guilty to the lesser charge.
