

KIDNAPED BOY IS RELEASED

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — An 11-year-old boy was released unharmed Saturday night after a lone gunman robbed the youth's father and kidnaped the boy.

Paul T. McDougall Sr., 33, Indianapolis, said he and his son, Paul Jr., were confronted by a lone gunman at a night deposit window of a branch bank here. McDougall, a service station manager, said the bandit robbed him of $406, then jumped into his car and drove away with his son.

Police said the bandit abandoned the car and the boy several blocks away.
