

Alleged Molester Brought To City

By WILLIAM E. ANDERSON

Detectives flew Albert Garcia, 47, to Indianapolis by helicopter from Kentucky yesterday and said they were checking his whereabouts when newsboy Jerry M. (Mike) Bayles, 10, was murdered last Oct. 3.

Garcia balked momentarily at returning to Indianapolis until he was assured he was wanted only on sodomy warrants, said Det. Sgt. John A. Lund of Indianapolis police.

THE WARRANTS accuse Garcia of sexually molesting two other carriers of The Indianapolis Star last January.

Garcia said he had heard in jail at Bowling Green, Ky., that he was wanted for questioning "about a murder."

A newspaper at Bowling Green reported incorrectly yesterday that Garcia was being returned to Indianapolis "to face murder charges" in connection with the Bayles slaying, Lund said.

DET. SGT. CHESTER ENLOW of Indiana State Police, who accompanied Lund to Bowling Green, told Garcia he
