

Murder Trial Set

Special to The News
GREENFIELD, Ind.—A 19-year-old Indianapolis youth is scheduled to stand trial here April 26 on charges of first-degree murder in connection with the death of a John Marshall High School freshman last November.
Jeffrey A. Bailey, 3600 block of Brentwood Avenue, was indicted Jan. 5 by Hancock County Grand Jury in connection with the death of Robert Jackson Jr., 15.

Jackson's body was found in Buck Creek in Hancock County, south of Cumberland. Bailey also has been charged with sodomy in connection with the Jackson case.
