

Star Carrier Kidnap Suspect To Be Returned

Two Indianapolis police detectives left by plane last night for Los Angeles, Calif., to pick up and return to the city Larry W. Payton, 23, accused of kidnaping a carrier for The Indianapolis Star.

Payton, formerly of the 500 block of South Harding Street, was arrested in California on a warrant in connection with the alleged abduction and attempted molesting on Oct. 31.

Payton's mother, Mrs. Helen Haag of Sylmar, Calif., yesterday denied saying she is "glad he was picked up before he hurt somebody," a quotation which police had attributed to her.

She does not believe her son ever had or would hurt anyone, she said, but declared she wants her son placed in a rehabilitation center where competent physicians can help him. He is "mentally ill," she said.
